

Directions from DFW and DAL airports to the Sheraton Dallas Hotel via the DART Orange Line Rail

From DFW (Dallas Fort Worth International Airport):

- 1.) Pick up your bags from baggage claim. Exit baggage claim and follow the signs for the terminal/rail transportation link.

- 2.) Once you are outside, follow the signs for the Terminal Link. This will take you to a bust stop serviced by large orange buses.

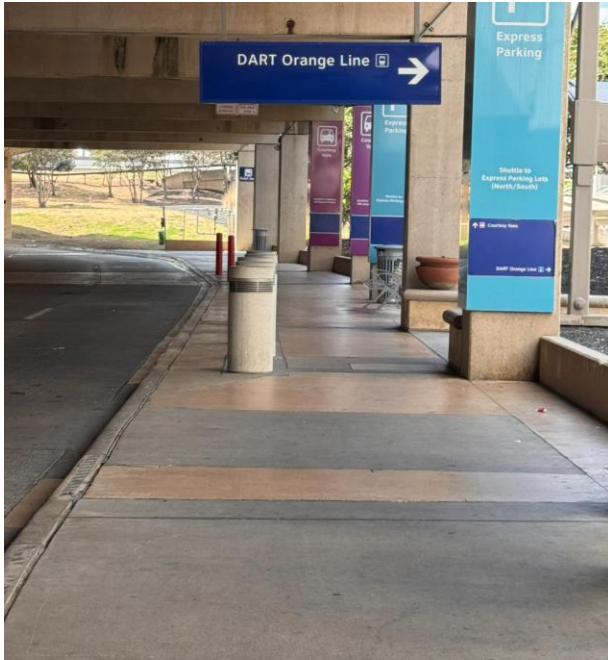

- 3.) There are two buses making the Circuit. Wait for the bus that goes to Terminal A. You will be accessing the DART “Orange Line” train.

- 4.) You will exit the bus at the second Terminal A stop. You will see signs outside directing you to an elevator that is immediately adjacent to the terminal entrance. The elevator for the DART Orange Line is clearly marked.

- 5.) Exit the terminal on the lower level and follow the signs to DART Orange Line. You'll be on an outdoor winding path for a few hundred meters.

- 6.) Purchase your ticket at the kiosk and Board the Orange Line train. The one-way fare is $ 3.00 USD. "Parker Road" will be displayed on the outside of the train. Parker Road is the final destination of the train before it turns around and returns to DFW airport.

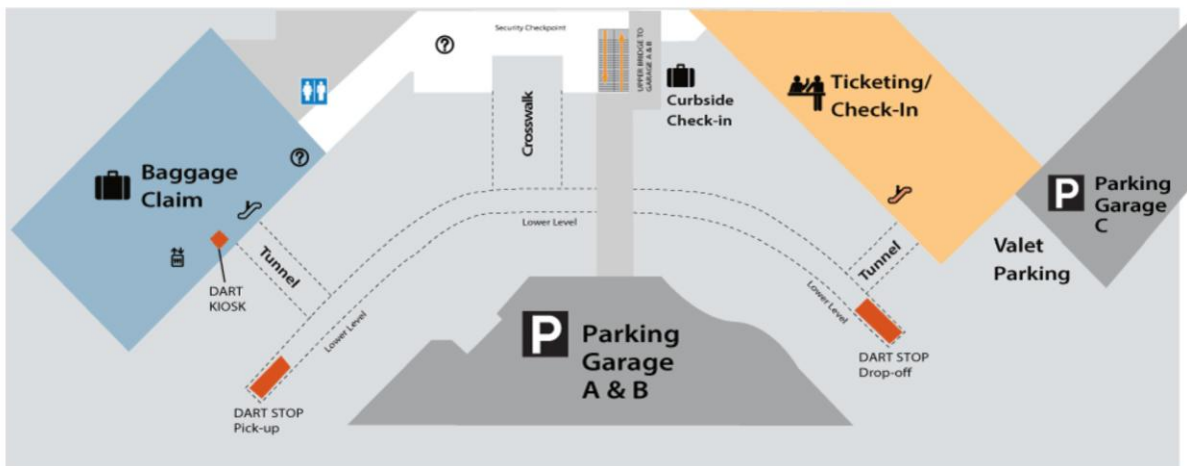

- 7.) Stay on the train until the St. Paul Station. St. Paul is the 14th stop (if you are counting) after you leave the airport. The ride will take approximately 50 minutes.

- 8.) Exit the train and if you look up you'll see the hotel! Walk down the sidewalk (adjacent to the train tracks) and turn right at the plaza where the Sheraton Hotel's main entrance is located. This is a few hundred meters walk. Do not try to enter the hotel through the North Tower entrance (which you will pass along the way to the main entrance) as that entrance is not open to pedestrian traffic entering from the outside.

From DAL (Love Field):

- 1.) Pick up your bags from baggage claim. There is an DART information kiosk in baggage claim (adjacent to door 2) that will provide train schedule information.

- 2.) Take the shuttle to the Inwood/Love Field station. There is no charge to ride the shuttle.

- 3.) Purchase your ticket at the train station for the Orange Line ($ 2.50 USD for a one way fare) and board the Orange Line train (direction downtown Dallas/Parker Road). "Parker Road" will be displayed on the outside of the train. Parker Road is the final destination of the train before it turns around and returns to DFW airport.
- 4.) Stay on the train until the St. Paul Station. The ride will take approximately 30 minutes.
